The sandwich is served with the "secret recipe" dressing, which has herbal Italian vinaigrette, nothing like you get at Jenkins deli. The chicken comes in a toasted baguette, with mustard and lettuce. It's my favorite chicken salad anywhere. "If you can't find it at Jenkins, you don't need to look for anything else," said Ellen Henry, a cook at Cafe Fred on the west side. I live in TN and went to Jenkins Deli for lunch today and ordered a chicken salad sandwich. I like the food at Jenkins and wanted to try this because of all the reviews for the chicken salad. Unfortunately, it looked very much like generic chicken salad, the bread was very oily with the dressing. It was very bland, and does not in any way resemble the description on the menu. I would not be ordering a chicken salad from Jenkins Deli again. Also, the sandwich, which came in a paper sack was not wrapped in foil as the menu advertises. When asked about this the waitress said that the paper sacks keep the bread from turning soggy. Sorry, I can't believe anyone could call this chicken salad.
